I. PURPOSE

This Administrative Directive confirms the City of San Antonio's (City) commitment to foster a work environment free from employment discrimination, harassment and sexual harassment. In addition, this policy establishes procedures and responsibilities for preventing employment discrimination, harassment and sexual harassment and for reporting, investigating, and resolving allegations of employment discrimination, harassment and sexual harassment.

II. POLICY

It is the policy of the City of San Antonio to provide a work environment to all employees and applicants free of employment discrimination, harassment and sexual harassment. In addition, any behavior, regardless of intent or severity, that could be deemed inappropriate workplace behavior, but may not legally constitute employment discrimination, harassment, or sexual harassment, is prohibited. Harassment and sexual harassment are forms of discrimination that violate Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, (as amended), the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the American with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA), and related State of Texas statutes. Retaliation against employees for opposing alleged employment discrimination, harassment, or sexual harassment or for filing a charge, testifying, assisting, or participating in any manner in an Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) investigation, proceeding, or hearing is prohibited.

This Administrative Directive is applicable to all employees of the City of San Antonio. Disciplinary actions outlined in this directive are not applicable to employees who are at will (non-civil service) and uniformed employees who are subject to different disciplinary procedures.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Employment Discrimination - employment decisions based on stereotypes or assumptions about abilities, traits, or performance of individuals of a certain sex, race, age, religion, or ethnic group, sexual orientation, political affiliation or belief or individuals with disabilities; and denying employment opportunities to a person because of marriage to, or association with, an individual of a particular race, religion, national origin, political affiliation or belief, or an individual with a disability. Discrimination is also defined by Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA).
- B. Harassment - verbal or physical conduct designed to threaten, intimidate or coerce; verbal taunting due to race, color, religion, sexual orientation, national origin, sex, age, and disability which, in the employee's opinion, impairs his/her ability to perform his/her job.

Effective Date: 02/01/82

Revision Date(s): 10/01/99; 12/7/07

- C. Inquiry - an informal fact finding investigation conducted by a Departmental EEO Counselor or Human Resources Generalist (HRG) under direction of the City of San Antonio's Equal Employment Opportunity Office.
- D. Sexual Harassment - the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission defines Sexual Harassment as follows: "Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment; (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual, or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment." 29 C.F.R. § 1604.11(a). Sexual harassment can be committed by the victim's supervisor, an agent of the employer, a supervisor in another area, a co-worker, customers, or a non-employee, toward any other employee, regardless of either's gender. The harasser's conduct must be unwelcome. Sexual harassment can take one of two forms, quid pro quo or hostile work environment.
1. Quid pro quo - submission to or rejection of sexual conduct is used as the basis for making employment decisions, such as but not limited to promotions, pay increases, hiring and firing by a person in power. This type of sexual harassment is typically a direct sexual overture and is a type of sexual harassment.
 2. Hostile work environment - sexual conduct which unreasonably interferes with an employee's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment, even if it leads to no tangible or economic job consequence. This type of harassment can be committed by any employee and exists where the conduct is so severe or pervasive that it creates an intimidating, offensive workplace environment and alters the terms and conditions of employment. (The "hostile environment" standard also applies to harassment on the basis of age and disability as well as race color, religion, sexual orientation, sex, and national origin.)
